*We dedicate this trial
to the beloved memory of our honorary
member Dolores Weiss,
who helped guide us through our first
matches and was there to help and support
us at our first trials.
Dolores' love of the sport of agility,
her involvement and encouragement of others should be held up as an example for which we should all strive.*

If your dog does not have a jump height card, they will need to be measured prior to running. You should carry your jump height card with you and be able to present the card if requested at the trial. It is the handler's responsibility to make sure their dog without a height card is measured prior to the commencement of their first class. Judging will not be held or interrupted for measuring.

Owners are responsible for entering the proper height divisions. Handlers of dogs in Regular Classes may opt to run in a higher height division, but not in a division lower than their proper height division. Move-ups over the weekend will be accommodated for the following day, provided the information is turned in to the Trial Secretary before the trial ends the previous day.

SAFETY, BEHAVIOR and LIABILITY

The safety of the dog is our primary concern. By entering this trial, exhibitors acknowledge that they are familiar with the rules and regulations of this sport, and that their dogs are familiar with and able to perform all obstacles safely.

It is expressly understood that exhibitors alone are responsible for the behavior of their dogs and/or children. In such case, no refund of any fees paid will be made. The Oconee River Kennel Club and its agents, employees, etc., will assume no responsibilities for any loss, damage or injury sustained by exhibitors or handlers, or to any of their dogs or property and further assumes no responsibility for injury to children. No entry fee will be refunded in the event a dog is absent, disqualified, excused, or barred from competition by the action of the Trial Committee.

Bitches in season are not permitted to compete in Agility Trials. As such, the club will refund the entry fee paid for bitches unable to compete for this reason, minus $5 per run (each day), upon presentation of a veterinarian certificate. This certificate must be presented to the Trial Secretary no later than 30 minutes before the start of judging on the first day of the trial.
